

Mr. Edens 8th graders built batter boards in preparation for a project to square the foundation for a new shelter to be placed on the Jr. High Field at Black Mountain Elementary School. The students put together two by fours and used the 3-4-5 rule generated by the Pythagorean Theorem to ensure the boards made a perfect right angle.

